Capacity for delight By Rachel Lark

This book is for: Anyone up for a fun, heartbreaking/heartbuilding, and highly humorous story. But this isn't a story, it's my life. Which brings me to the actual intended audience for this book: The person I was just months ago, the twenty- (or thirty-, forty-, or even fifty-plus-) something woman who thinks that online dating is exclusively for creeps and Internet predators. The fun, social, outgoing, bright, well-spoken woman who'd like a better way to meet men than at bars. The career-oriented woman who is tired of wasting her two free nights a week on BAD blind dates. The woman who is starting to doubt that there are still great guys out there or that she will ever find them. These pages are proof that those men exist. You may even fall in love with the characters on these pages. But the point is that they aren't characters, they are real men. And although maybe they aren't THE men for me, one of them could be THE man for you. The only way to find out is to go online and see for yourself. I did it, and I'm not a social reject or an Internet predator. Consider checking it out. I won't tell anyone. And you don't have to, either. Unless your experience, like mine, transforms your life into a non-fairy tale that writes itself, begins to resemble a string of scenes from the romantic motion pictures you've grown to consider unrealistic, and begs to be shared. I changed my life practically overnight. You can too.
