Namaste Jii with Workbook CD By Arun Prakash

About This Book This book has been developed to teach level one of Hindi for non-Hindi speaking learners of junior or senior high school or the first semester of college Hindi level one. The curriculum and the subject matter is based on the foreign language education guidelines for elementary level provided by the Texas Education Agency and ACTFL. This book is divided into sections. The first section establishes the relationship of Hindi and English grammar covered in this book. The second section teaches the writing system and provides introductory conversation. Grammar is covered in the third section. The fourth section teaches novice level conversation. The fifth section is for reading comprehension that provides simple essays. The sixth section is to develop question and answer skills. In this section I have given some lessons by writing Hindi sentences in English. In the seventh section are given some clippings from the Hindi news papers and magazines. Vocabulary and grammar charts are in the last section which is section eight of the book.
