Editorial Review

From the Author

While this story is fictional in every sense, it is set at one of the most beautiful and pristine areas of the Great Lakes. Near Twins Harbors, just north on the shoreline road from Duluth is a masterpiece of nature--between the steep cliffs to the massive lakes below to the wooded forests, waterfalls, and trails that dot the shoreline to Grand Marais. Check out Grand Superior Lodge and the many diners, boutique shops and national treasures such as Gooseberry Falls, Split Rock Lighthouse and the pie and diner along the route.
