From the Inside Flap

I have always been interested in the field of medicine. However, I knew I did not want to become a doctor and practice medicine, yet I always imagined having a career that was highly respected and would allow me to be involved with the latest in medical advances. I also wanted a career that was dynamic, global in nature, would allow me to travel, would provide financial rewards, and was in high demand. In 2000, I began my career within the pharmaceutical industry, and I found exactly what I was looking for in the Medical Science Liaison (MSL) role.

From the Back Cover

Even for highly qualified candidates, becoming a Medical Science Liaison is a challenging endeavor. It's nearly impossible to achieve on your own without the proper preparation and guidance.

The Medical Science Liaison Career Guide: How to Break into Your First Role will show you, step by step, how to search for, apply, and interview for your first MSL role. The book reveals strategies for standing apart from the competition, what hiring managers look for when considering candidates, and what gets the right candidates hired.

Dr. Samuel Jacob Dyer shares his years of experience as a hiring manager at some of the world's top pharmaceutical companies and as chairman of the board for the MSL Society. In three easy-to-read sections, he discusses the Medical Science Liaison role, presents your MSL job search strategy, and reveals the inner workings of the MSL hiring process. His proven techniques and insights will increase your chances of starting your career as a highly paid Medical Science Liaison.

About the Author

Dr. Samuel Dyer is the chairman of the board of the Medical Science Liaison Society and has over 15 years of international MSL experience. During his career, he has managed MSL teams and operations in over sixty countries across the United States, Canada, Europe, Africa, the Middle East, Australia, and New Zealand. He has facilitated the successful launch of pharmaceutical and medical device products for both Fortune 500 pharmaceutical companies and small biotechs. Dr. Dyer has coached, interviewed, and reviewed the CVs of countless MSL candidates. His insights and guidance have resulted in numerous candidates successfully breaking into their first MSL role. Dr. Dyer has written extensively on the Medical Science Liaison role, including numerous published articles, benchmark studies, and reports. He has also been a speaker at several global conferences presenting various MSL topics, including creating teams, management, global trends, and the metrics used to measure performance. Dr. Dyer has also been sought out as a consultant for a number of pharmaceutical and management consulting companies on MSL projects. Dr. Dyer has a Ph.D. in Health Sciences and did his medical training in Chicago. He has a Master's Degree in Tropical Biology (where he studied in the Amazon) and has a B.S. in Biology. Dr. Dyer also completed a certificate program for Executive Leadership and Strategy in Pharmaceuticals and Biotechnology at the Harvard Business School.
