Editorial Review

Amazon.com Review

Jetfighter III just isn't the sort of game that allows a book to tell you exactly how to win. Which is good, because that's not why you buy a flight-simulator/dogfight game, is it? To gain the edge, but keep the thrill, you want the information that helps you outsmart the enemy, and Scott Wolf gives you that. This book is like a supercharged intelligence report with the lowdown on all the enemy resources for each mission. Combined with its lessons in general air combat strategy, it gives you the mental firepower you need to win.
