An Angel's Touch: A Georgian Romance By Elizabeth Bailey

A Regency Romance Novel

In the tradition of Regency Romance, a sweet story in the style of beauty and the beast.

Verity's freely expressed criticisms drag a brooding reclusive marquis back into the world to learn to live and love again.

AN ANGEL'S TOUCH

Outspoken Verity Lambourn berates the mentor of two lost children, having no idea that the lame young man with the vibrant black eyes is the widowed Henry, Marquis of Salmesbury. When she knocks him flying in Tunbridge Wells, Verity realises she has not been able to get him out of her mind.

Tumbling towards a promising future, Verity must confront the shadows of Henry's tragic past. Matters come to a head when the children are kidnapped, but it takes a threat to Henry himself to test the strength of Verity's love and the truth of a gypsy's prophecy.
