Editorial Review

About the Author

Leo L. Levesque spend much of his time working, writing and keeping up several acres of property around his very rural house in Rhode Island. He began writing at the age of 60 tackling the world of Tom Swift, the perpetually 18-year-old inventor. His books began by exploring an alternate universe where Tom is Thomasina and is not from the U.S., but from England. That 5-parts saga led to several Tom Swift novels and short stories on his own, and a trio (so far) of dual author Tom Swifts with fellow author Thomas Hudson. His newest endeavor is a series of books meant to be read to preschoolers and then by early readers. Each one features a different animal as the main character.
