Introduction to Criminology: Why Do They Do It? By Pamela J. Schram, Stephen G. Tibbetts

Introduction to Criminology: Why Do They Do It? presents a comprehensive and integrated approach to introductory criminology. Acclaimed authors and professors Pamela J. Schram and Stephen G. Tibbetts skillfully connect criminological theories to real-life cases to help students better understand criminology fundamentals. They thoroughly introduce theoretical perspectives that explain criminal behavior and are most respected by modern criminologists, while illustrating the theories with real-life examples such as street violence and property crimes. This text also includes many contemporary topics that are not well represented in competing texts, such as cybercrime, hate crimes, white-collar crime, homeland security, and identity theft.

Editorial Review

Review

“In depth coverage of theories, much more thorough than many of the other ‘Intro’ books out there in terms of theory coverage.”

(Dan Dexheimer)

“It is comprehensive and well-organized. The features such as Case Study and Why Do They Do It? add much to the material. The videos and other links help students receive the same information from different mediums.”

(Terri L. Earnest)

“Clear and easy to understand. Excellent examples with visuals...” (Shanell Sanchez-Smith)

(Bradley Wright)

“The book is well written, in a clear and direct manner. Complex theories and ideas are presented in a very clear, linear, fashion...Excellent visuals (charts, tables, pictures).”

(Christopher Salvatore, PhD)
