Freelance Saga: Episode 6 By Scottie Futch

The world of Alterra is a place of mystery, of wonder, of beautiful monster girls who get what they want. In Episode 6, Scott and his crew develop their relationships further, and have to deal with the realities of travel in the fantasy world at large. Can a man and his harem of beautiful monster girls make a place for themselves in the world? Episode 6 begins to first major story arc, the road to Darcheilme.

Freelance Saga is part of a group of stories known as 'Project Scott'. These stories feature main protagonists that have the same first name, but who can vary somewhat in their backstory. Some are more similar than others, and many use compatible themes to give the impression of different dimensional analogs of the same soul. Each story can be seen as an alternate universe story with a similar main character.
